

BELO SUN MINING CORP.

Majority Voting Policy

Dated: November 22, 2016

The directors of Belo Sun Mining Corp. (the “Corporation”) are elected each year by the shareholders of the Corporation at the annual meeting of shareholders. Management of the Corporation proposes nominees to the shareholders for election to the Board at such meeting. Between annual meetings of shareholders, the Board may elect directors to serve until the next annual meeting of shareholders in accordance with the Corporation’s constating documents and the Business Corporations Act (Ontario).

The Board believes that each director should have the confidence and support of the shareholders of the Corporation. To this end, the Board has unanimously adopted this policy and future nominees for election to the Board will be required to confirm that they will abide by this policy.

Forms of proxy for the election of directors will permit a shareholder to vote in favour of, or to withhold from voting, separately for each director nominee. The Chairman of the Board will ensure that the number of shares voted in favour of, or withheld from voting for, each director nominee is recorded and promptly made public after the meeting. If the vote was by a show of hands, the Corporation will disclose the number of shares voted by proxy in favour of, or withheld from voting for, each director nominee.

If a director nominee has more votes withheld than are voted in favour of him or her, the nominee will be considered not to have received the support of the shareholders, even though duly elected as a matter of corporate law. Such a nominee will forthwith submit his or her resignation to the Board, such resignation to be effective on acceptance by the Board. The Board must determine whether or not to accept the resignation within 90 days after the date of the relevant shareholders' meeting. To make this determination, the Board will establish an advisory committee (the “Committee”) to which it shall refer the resignation for consideration. The Committee is required to accept the resignation of the director, absent exceptional circumstances. In such circumstances, the Committee will make a recommendation to the Board as to the director’s suitability to continue to serve as a director after reviewing, among other things, the results of the voting for the nominee and the Board will consider such recommendation. The Board shall accept any recommendation of the Committee to accept a resignation, absent exceptional circumstances. The director who tendered a resignation pursuant to this policy will not participate in any meeting of the Board or any sub-committee of the Board at which the resignation is considered.

If the Committee recommends that the Board accept a director’s resignation and the Board accepts the director’s resignation, the director will resign and the Board may, subject to compliance with applicable laws, (1) leave a vacancy in the Board unfilled until the next annual meeting, (2) fill the vacancy by appointing a new director, or (3) call a special meeting of shareholders to consider new nominee(s) to fill the vacant position(s).

A news release must be promptly issued with the Board’s decision regarding the resignation of the director. A copy of the news release with the board’s decision must be provided to the Toronto Stock Exchange. If the board determines not to accept a resignation, the news release must fully state the reasons for that decision.

This policy does not apply where an election involves a proxy battle (i.e., where proxy material is circulated in support of one or more nominees who are not part of the director nominees supported by the Board).
